Pay and Allowances

The Westminster Bank is in a position to receive military pay and allowances, and to credit these to any of its branches upon the necessary instructions from an Officer to his Command Paymaster. Amongst its less familiar capacities, the Bank is able to arrange periodical payments by Agents abroad, and conversely to receive money sent from overseas for forming a capital basis which is secure and accessible. It will also undertake regular payments at home such as club subscriptions, insurance premiums, and school fees, and will accept Powers of Attorney to deal with customers' investments during absence abroad.

of the Aldershot Branch or from any other Branch which may

The difference a Refrigerator makes

You need a Refrigerator in your Home—for convenience and for health; for the delightful possibilities it opens up, of more varied menus, daintier, more appetising dishes all the year round than are possible without it. British Marco Refrigerators work automatically, need practically no attention; no water, no ice. They are, moreover, notably economical to run and most moderately priced. You can buy one out of income, if you wish.

MONTHLY

FOR

MAY, 1931

NOTICES.

Under the provisions of the Army Act, 1881, Section 168(d), this Army List is evidence of the status and rank of the officers mentioned in it.

The Army List, except this List, its Half-Yearly Supplement and the Half-Yearly List, is authorised by the War Office.

The words subscribed to the titles of regiments, as "Peninsula," "Waterloo," "Neuve Chapelle," &c., are the Honours awarded to such regiments in commemoration of their services. Those printed in heavy type are borne on their Standards or Colours, or, in the case of regiments having no Standards or Colours, their Appointments.

Officers whose names are printed in italics are on the supernumerary or seconded lists.

In regimental lists of Foot Guards and Infantry an officer's battalion is indicated by a number in round brackets, e.g. (2), after his name; a number enclosed in square brackets, e.g. [2], denotes that the war is attached and not posted.

Communications from officers of the Militia, Territorial Army and Supplementary Reserve regarding the Army List should be forwarded through the usual official channels, and (b) of the symbol \times denoting service, should be forwarded through the usual official channels. Other communications regarding corrections, errors or omissions should be addressed direct as follows:—

THE UNDER-SECRETARY OF STATE,

Army List.

The War Office,
London, S.W.1.

Persons who succeed to peerages, baronetcies or courtesy titles are responsible for immediately notifying the fact to the Under-Secretary of State, The War Office, in order that the necessary alterations may be made in the Army List and in the official records of the War Office.

ARMY AGENTS.
